

McGill's Academic Health Network

*Learning in the Clinical Environment:
How can we do better for all?*

David Eidelman, MDCM
Vice Principal, Health Affairs
Dean, Faculty of Medicine

October 29, 2018

Introduction

Why this retreat?

- Education is our core business
- Health professions education is what we are known for as a Faculty
- Excellence in health professions education is why we are internationally recognized as a university
- Educational excellence can only be achieved through close collaborations
- The learning environment is essential to our success

Agenda

13:00– 14:30 Presentations by leaders in education

14:30– 14:50 Question/Discussion period

14:50– 15:05 Break

15:05– 15:45 Working groups: What can we do better?
How can we work together?

15:45– 16:30 Report back by theme; next steps

16:30– 17:15 Updates on faculty/patient wellness

17:15– 17:30 Dean's final reflections