2 English Language Programs

The School of Continuing Studies' Language and Intercultural Communication unit offers high-quality English language instruction to meet the needs of a wide-ranging clientele such as professionals, international students, incoming McGill students, and new Montrealers. The Language and Intercultural Communication unit's part-time and full-time programs help learners achieve competence in both oral and written English, and lead to the McGill Certificate of Proficiency. Using stimulating and effective teaching methods as well as the latest technology, the Language and Intercultural Communication unit's dynamic teaching team helps learners improve their English as quickly and as efficiently as possible, opening doors to new professional, academic, and cultural opportunities in Quebec and beyond.

2.1 Academic, Cultural, and Professional Development Opportunities

The School of Continuing Studies Language and Intercultural Communication unit offers enriching second-language instruction for:

- international students;
- business professionals;
- elementary and high school teachers;
- college and university professors;
- individuals transferred to Montreal;
- recent immigrants;
- incoming McGill students;
- other School of Continuing Studies learners.

* 1 Students who begin their studies with courses CEEN 221/CEEN 222 and who would like to be admitted to the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication must take two complementary courses (CEEN 301 or CEEN 401 or CEEN 402 or CEEN 403), or equivalent courses as approved by the Language and Intercultural Communication unit, to satisfy the requirements of the program. These courses may be taken as part of the advanced module of the program. For more information, please contact the Language and Intercultural Communication unit.

* 2 Students who begin their studies with courses CEEN 331/CEEN 332 and who would like to be admitted to the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication must take four complementary courses (CEEN 301 and CEEN 401 and CEEN 402 and CEEN 403), or equivalent courses as approved by the Language and Intercultural Communication unit, to satisfy the requirements of the program. These courses may be taken as part of the advanced module of the program. For more information, please contact the Language and Intercultural Communication unit.

* 3 Students who begin their studies with courses CEEN 411/CEEN 412 are not eligible for admission to the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication. However, these students may register as "Special Students" and may be eligible to receive the McGill Attestation of Proficiency in English if they successfully complete all four (4) courses of the Advanced module (CEEN 411, CEEN 412, CEEN 421, and CEEN 422) with a minimum grade of B- (65%).

2.2.2 Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication: Academic Regulations

Admission Requirements

To be admitted to the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication

- Students must sit the Entrance Placement Test (EPT) and place into a level no higher than Intermediate High (CEEN 331/CEEN 332); see section 2.2.3 Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication: Entrance Placement Test \(EPT\) and www.mcgill.ca/continuingstudies/programs-and-courses/languages/english/certificate-proficiency-english-professional-communication for details.
- Students must be at least 18 years of age and hold a CEGEP diploma (DEC) or equivalent.
- Students 21 years of age and over who do not have the normal academic background for admission may be admitted as Mature students.
- Students between 18 and 21 years of age who do not have a CEGEP (DEC) diploma or equivalent may be accepted into a qualifying program to be determined by the Language and Intercultural Communication unit. Formal admission to the certificate program will normally follow upon satisfactory completion of the qualifying program.

- Students below 18 years of age without a CEGEP diploma (DEC) will not be admitted to a certificate program, nor will they be permitted to take courses.

Admission Procedures

For more information, please see School of Continuing Studies Getting Started- Admission Requirements : Admission Procedures: Continuing Studies Undergraduate and Graduate Certificates and Diplomas

All students seeking admission to the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication must also submit their Entrance Placement Test (EPT) result. Students who are eligible for admission to the program are strongly advised to submit an Application for Admission within their first session of studies.

Residency Requirements and Advanced Standing

- Students are required to complete at least 70% of the program requirements at McGill University.
- Advanced Standing of up to nine (9) credits may be granted for successfully completed equivalent courses taken at the university level within the last five years.
- Students are permitted to be away from the program for three (3) consecutive sessions without reapplying and retaking the Entrance Placement Test.

Time Limits

The program must be completed within four years from the date of admission. Students may request in writing an extension of this time limit, which may be granted under special circumstances with the approval of the Director.

Academic Standing Requirement

A student who obtains a grade of C (55%) or more in a given course is considered to have passed the course and is awarded three (3) university credits. Nevertheless, according to internal program regulations, a student must obtain a grade of B- (65%) or more in each course to be permitted to register for the next level and to qualify for the Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication.

An attendance of 2/3 of all lectures is mandatory.

A maximum of two unsatisfactory grades per course/level is permitted in a Certificate of Proficiency program. A student who cannot pass to a higher level after two attempts must have the permission of the relevant program coordinator in order to have permission to remain in the program. Overall, a maximum of three unsatisfactory grades is permitted in any of the Certificate of Proficiency programs.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that course and program requirements are met. Students who fail to meet these requirements will be denied permission to continue in the course/program.

In order to be eligible for graduation, students must complete all program requirements with a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of at least 2.0, which will be computed over all courses (including supplemental and unsatisfactory grades) taken in the program.

Special Students

Students not wishing to be admitted to the program may register as a "Special Student" in a course, provided they have taken the Entrance Placement Test (EPT), or have completed the necessary prerequisites. Please consult School of Continuing Studies Getting Started- Admission Requirements : Special Student Status for further information pertaining to Special Students.

Special Students, although not formally admitted to the program, are expected to demonstrate seriousness of academic purpose, and are governed by the Academic Standing Requirements mentioned above.

2.2.3 Certificate of Proficiency – English for Professional Communication: Entrance Placement Test (EPT)

All new students are required to take an Entrance Placement Test (EPT) to assess their level of proficiency. The EPT is valid for a period of one (1) year from the test date. Students who do not register for a course within this time will be required to retake the EPT.

The EPT

2.3 Intensive English Program: Certificate of Proficiency in English – Language and Culture Overview

The Certificate of Proficiency in English – Language and Culture is designed to offer thorough and integrated instruction in English as a Second/Foreign language over eight levels (elementary to advanced).

2.3.1 Certificate (Cert.) Proficiency - English Language and Culture (Intensive) (160 CEU)

The program includes specific objectives and learning strategies for each level in speaking, listening, writing, reading, and pronunciation. It also includes

Many students studying English as a Second Language succeed in reaching an adequate level of oral fluency. However, they experience some difficulty in developing solid written communication skills which require more time and effort. This imbalance in language acquisition is a handicap in the workplace, where effective writing is a critical aspect of success for both employees and employers. With the rise of globalization, telecommuting and digital communications, good writing skills have indeed become vital in the modern workplace.

All courses in this program are offered in an online learning format.
